BUFFALO, N. Y.

BUFFALO, March 12.—The people here to-day exhibited, in a marked manner, their veneration for one of the nation's most illustrious statesmen, and heartfelt sorrow for one of its oldest and most beloved citizens, Millard Fillmore, Ex-President of the United States. Flags were flying at half-mast on all of the public and private buildings, and from the shipping in the harbor. Business was entirely suspended, and all the thoroughfares and private residences all along the line of march of the procession were profusely decorated in mourning garb. At nine o'clock this morning, the family of the distinguished dead, and a few intimate friends, assembled at the late private residence of the deceased, where solemn religious exercises were conducted by Rev. V. R. Hotchkiss, of the Baptist church, and Rev. John C. Lord, of the Presbyterian church. At the conclusion of the services, eight non-commissioned officers of company D, Buffa-lo city guards, detailed for pall-bearers, entered and bore the remains to the hearse, and under escort of the full company, conveyed the same to St. Paul's cathedral, where they lie in state. The casket containing the body was of rosewood, covered with white silk, with eight silver handles and silver trimmings. On the lid was a TEAS, which we are offering at reduced solid silver plate, containing the following inscription: "Millard Fillmon born January 7, 1800, died March 1874." While the body was at the family residence it was deposited in the west front room. At the head was a crown of flowers composed of camelias and rosebuquas and on the lid was a beautiful floral wreath and two large crosses, on the right a large star and on the left boquets and cut flowers. On reaching the cathedral the casket was deposited in the vestibule of the church. It lies covered with a pall of black velvet, trimmed with white crape and silver stars, with vases of exotic flowers at the head and foot There it laid in state, with company D as a guard of honor. Notwithstanding the cold, raw day, from ten o'clock until four, the hour for closing the casket, thousands of citizens and strangers thronged the vestibule to take a last look at the distinguished dead. Shortly after two o'clock the doors of the cathedral were opened to admit the United States senatorial and house committees, legislative committee, members of Governor

Dix's military staff, the mayor, city authorities and committees of the council, of the university of Buffalo. bar of Erie, county board of trade, and other civil societies. At a quarter past two the family having entered the ca-thedral, sergeants detailed from the first United States infantry stationed at fort Porter, bore the casket from the vest bule into the cathedral, headed by Rev. Dr. Shelton, and the Episcopal clergy of Buffalo, and followed by Wm. A. Bird, Noah P. Sprague, E. K. Jewett, O. H. Marshall, O. G. Steele, Judge George W. Clinton, Henry Martin and W. Bryant. The pall-bearers, eight of the elders and most influential citizens and friends of deceased, and deposited the same in front of the chancel. The ceremonies in the cathedral were of a solemn and impressive character, including a brief resume of the life of the illustrious dead by Rev. Dr. Shelton, the venerable rector of St. Paul's and life-long friend of Millard Fillmore. The casket was then borne to the hearse, and the procession moved in the following order: Major General Howard and Brigadier General Rogers and staffs; company D, Buffalo city guards; sixty-fifth and seventy-fourth regiments, National guards; companies A and E, first United States infantry, under Colonel
